1040 Easy Form Toilet Paper Launched

HARTFORD, CT --- Prankplace.com, LLC launched a new 1040 Easy Form toilet paper line for people who are stressed out and fed up with tax season. The toilet paper has a collage look to it, with pieces of the 1040 easy form printed on every sheet of the TP.

PrankPlace.com strategically waited until April 15 to sell the toilet paper so they could take the most dramatic approach to capturing how people really feel about tax season. PrankPlace.com's Principle, Steve Wampold says, "The 1040 [toilet] paper gives people a real outlet to express how they feel." There are always a number of people who wait until the last minute to file their taxes. "If taxes give someone the runs, they have the perfect product to clean it up," Wampold says slyly.

PrankPlace.com, LLC is an internet portal selling thousands of prank and gag gifts. For more information on 1040 easy form toilet paper, visit www.PrankPlace.com or call 1-800-592-0293.
